Summary

Gathering Together Farm is a Certified Organic, diversified fresh market vegetable farm. We pride ourselves on creating a friendly, informed, and community-oriented market experience. We value a collaborative work environment, and our success is driven by the energy our market team brings to work. We want marketeers to connect with our customers and the farm-based team, and to stay educated about the produce we grow. Marketeers are the face of the farm; passionate, creative, and organized people are greatly desired. Our Market Leads coordinate this symphony of good food and good people, and they are the vital connection between the market team, customers, and the farm!

The Role

We're seeking a responsible and highly motivated person, who loves good food and building community, to lead our Saturday Corvallis Market team

In collaboration with our Markets Coordinator, the Corvallis Market Lead will play a pivotal role in both the function and feel of GTF's market booth, as well as being responsible for communicating with farm management, helping with hiring, supervising and training new marketeers, and the oversight of market equipment and logistics.

This position is intended to be an ongoing position moving into subsequent market seasons, with the markets taking a break between Thanksgiving and New Year each year. This person should reside in the Corvallis/Philomath area. This position can be incorporated into another part-time or full-time position on the farm team, as and when other positions are opened.

Core responsibilities

This position is responsible for safely loading and driving the truck, coordinating all the activities of the market booths, scheduling & managing staff, while representing GTF in a positive, professional manner, and providing great customer service to retail customers and restaurant buyers at the market. Experience in fresh produce retail, food service, or farming is highly desired.
